“Under the Covers” Next CIPA Meeting November 16th

BROOMFIELD, COLORADO – November 11, 2002 – The November meeting of Colorado Independent Publishers Association (CIPA) will be held Saturday, November 16th. The meeting program is titled, “Under the Covers: Designing the Body Between the Sheets” and will explore the subject of good book design between the book’s covers. Panelists for the November program include:

- Bob Schram of Bookends Publication Design,
- Polly Christensen of Christensen & Son Design,
- Karen Saunders of MacGraphics Services, and
- Char Campbell of Char Campbell Desktop Publishing Services

The meeting will be held at the Park Hill Golf Club, 4141 E. 35th Street, Denver. Registration, networking, member presentations, and a continental breakfast begin at 8:00 a.m. The presentation, followed by round table discussions, will take place from 10:00 a.m. to Noon. Program is free to CIPA members, and guests attend for $15. Media representatives are welcome to attend for free, but please register. To register, call (303) 722-7200 or go to www.cipabooks.com.

Colorado Independent Publishers Association (CIPA) is a nonprofit statewide cooperative of independent book publishers. CIPA was created in 1992 for the express purpose of exchanging information on publishing-related topics and organizing cooperative marketing programs. It is an affiliate of Publishers Marketing Association (PMA) and Small Publishers Association of North America (SPAN). For more information, please visit the website at www.cipabooks.com.
