Colorado Independent Publishers Association Releases First Catalogue of Books

12/10/02 - BROOMFIELD, COLORADO – Colorado Independent Publishers Association (CIPA) has published its first catalogue of books by its publisher members. The 2002 CIPA Catalogue of Books highlights 152 titles, by 83 authors, and includes cover art and contact information. CIPA intends to update this catalogue every six months to include new books released by Colorado's independent publishers.

CIPA published the catalogue to let members of the Colorado media, and Colorado readers, know about the wide range of books produced and marketed in our home state. The catalog's 28 pages include both fiction and non-fiction books on a wide range of topics: professional/personal development, poetry and literature, regional interest, public policy, travel, cooking and nutrition, religion, science, and women's issues, to name a few. A majority of the book's authors reside in Colorado and are available for media appearances and interviews.

To receive a copy of the new catalogue of books by Colorado independent publishers, members of the media may contact Kenn Amdahl, President, CIPA, at (303) 436-1982 or WORDGUISE@aol.com.

Colorado Independent Publishers Association (CIPA) is a nonprofit statewide cooperative of independent book publishers. CIPA was created in 1992 for the express purpose of exchanging information on publishing-related topics and organizing cooperative marketing programs. It is an affiliate of Publishers Marketing Association (PMA) and Small Publishers Association of North America (SPAN). For more information, please visit the website at www.cipabooks.com.
